'Being a young rural doctor'

NEWSLETTER JULY 2016

INVITATION TO YOUNG DOCTORS

Invitation to join the VdGM/St Exupery Movement Exchange Programme, during the 6th EURIPA Rural Health Forum in Marseille.

The Organising Committee, the Faculty of Medicine of the University of Marseille, the Marseille Association of Graduates, the Saint Exupery Movement are pleased to invite 10 young trainees or doctors to spend two days in a surgery close to Marseille before the Rural Forum begins.

What form will it take?

On Tuesday September 20th, late afternoon, all the participants will meet with their French counterpart at the Faculty of Medicine. Each of them will be hosted by a French trainee and will spend the two following days (Wednesday 21st and Thursday 22nd) in a general practice. They will learn about the French health system, the organisation of internships and the relationship between trainee-trainer-patient. During the 6th EURIPA Rural Health Forum, the Exchange Group will provide a report to be presented on Saturday.

To be a candidate for the Exchange Programme, you have to:

- be a graduate, a post graduate or a young doctor (less than five year licensed.)
- be interested in rural practice
- write a cover letter, with a short CV and agree to help to organise an exchange in your country in the future.
- be registered at the 6th EURIPA Rural Health Forum with a special fee of €50.

Housing will be provided by your host until the end of the EURIPA Forum.

For more information, please contact Dr Ludovic Casanova ludovic.CASANOVA@univ-amu.fr

Looking forward to welcoming you in Marseille!

A NIGHT AT THE HARBOR

Plan to attend the « rural diner » on Friday September 23rd, at the restaurant O'2 Pointus, located at the old harbor of Marseille. A unique occasion to discover and enjoy mediterranean food in a charming place. Register here
